

Course Descriptions

Simple Creations (6 Week Course): Does your child have a vivid imagination? Every morning when they wake up, do they have a new story that they want to tell? In this 6 week course, we will stretch those imagination muscles and simply create. We will play acting games, learn how to write out stories using narration and dialogue, and learn how to make those stories grow bigger than ever imagined. This course is all online. To participate you must have reliable internet access. Prior theatre experience not required. Ages 8-11.

Acting by Direction (6 Week Course): Have you ever been in a rehearsal and your director tells you to “be more” this or “do more” that and you feel like they are speaking a different language? In this 6 week course, you will learn from a director what exactly they are trying to say and how to apply what they are asking of you. You will learn beginning to intermediate theatre terms and phrases that you will need to know to succeed onstage. This course is all online. To participate you must have reliable internet access. Prior theatre experience required. Ages 12+.

Beginning Guitar: Whether you are looking to be the next Carlos Santana, Taylor Swift, or anyone in between, this course is sure to give you a good foundation for your journey to being the next great guitarist! You will learn basic technique, notes in the first position, and common beginning chords during your beginning lessons. You must sign up for a minimum of 4 weeks of lessons, but you may continue lessons as long as you like. The Beginning Guitar curriculum can take 10-14 weeks depending on individual pacing set by the student. These lessons are all online. To participate you must have reliable internet access, a guitar, and the required textbook (assigned based on age). Ages 8+.

Beginning Voice: Do you want to sing on Broadway? The radio? Or maybe just church choir? No matter where you have your sights set, every great singer has started with the basics. You will learn basic music theory, sight singing, and how those topics applied to popular music can help you get to your next stepping stone on your way to singing like a pro during your beginning lessons. You must sign up for a minimum of 4 weeks of lessons, but you may continue lessons as long as you like. The Beginning Voice curriculum can take 10-14 weeks depending on individual pacing set by the student. These lessons are all online. To participate you must have reliable internet access and the required textbook (assigned based on age). Ages 8+.

Acting Coaching: Whether you are preparing for an audition or you would just like to work on your skills as an actor, I will use my director’s eye to give guidance and suggestions for growth. You may sign up for one time coaching or regular weekly coaching. This coaching is all online. To participate you must have reliable internet access. Ages 8+.

Intermediate Guitar: Whether you are preparing for a performance or you would just like to work on your skills as a guitarist, I will work with you to ensure proper technique and establish your own book of “go-to” songs that you love to play. You must sign up for a minimum of 4 weeks of lessons, but you may continue lessons as long as you like. The Intermediate Guitar curriculum can take 10-14 weeks depending on individual pacing set by the student. These lessons are all online. To participate you must have reliable internet access, a guitar, and the required textbook. Ages 8+ (must demonstrate competency in the areas taught in the Beginning Guitar curriculum).

Intermediate Voice: Whether you are preparing for an audition, a performance, or you would just like to work on your skills as a singer, I will work with you to ensure proper technique and establish your own book of “go-to” songs that fit your range and a style that you love. You must sign up for a minimum of 4 weeks of lessons, but you may continue lessons as long as you like. The Intermediate Voice curriculum can take 10-14 weeks depending on individual pacing set by the student. These lessons are all online. To participate you must have reliable internet access and the required textbook. Ages 8+ (must demonstrate competency in the areas taught in the Beginning Voice curriculum).